Subject: NCI Bid Board Posting – Whole-exome library and RNASeq library preparation supplies and capture kits for sequencing of patient tumor samples

At the National Cancer Institute (NCI), The Surgery Branch (SB) is a combined laboratory and clinical research unit devoted to the development of innovative cancer immunotherapies and their translation to the treatment of patients with cancer. The Surgery Branch was responsible for the development of interleukin-2 (IL-2), the first effective immunotherapy in humans, the development of cell transfer immunotherapies for melanoma and other solid cancers, the first insertion of foreign genes into humans and the first development of effective human cancer immunotherapies based on the genetic engineering of autologous lymphocytes with genes encoding anti-tumor T cell receptors or chimeric antigen receptors.

The primary objective of this purchase is to continue using these reagents to continue working on sequencing project that is to be used for clinical purposes to aid in gearing treatment plans for patients on Surgery Branch clinical trials.

The National Cancer Institute plans to purchase Whole-exome library and RNASeq library preparation supplies and capture kits from Agilent Technologies, Inc Willmington DE to perform this work. This is not a request for competitive quotation. However, if any interested party believes it can meet the attached requirements, it may submit a statement of capabilities. The capability statement must be in writing and must contain information and material in sufficient detail to allow NCI to determine is the party can fully meet this requirement. The capability statement must be received in the contracting office by 11:30 AM on April 20, 2024, ET. A determination by the Government not to compete this requirement based upon responses to this notice is solely within the discretion of the Government. Information received will be considered solely for the purpose of determining whether to conduct a competitive procurement. No vendor contact can supply these specific kits.

Sole Source Justification:

The following market research has been and yielded the following outcome: 1- Illumina has a WES kit that is geared towards the HiSeq and MiSeq but unfortunately it is for library prep and capture of small quantities of gDNA. We need to have a kit that starts with a large amount of gDNA which the kit that we are purchasing from Agilent does. 2 and 3- I have not found any other company that does the type of work that we need done for a reasonable price and haven't found one that is owned by women or is a small business.

STATEMENT OF NEED (SON)

1.0 TITLE

Sequencing of cancer patient samples using the Agilent Magnis automated DNA/RNA sequencing kits to determine the somatic mutation signature.

2.0 BACKGROUND

Agilent Technologies Magnis SureSelect XT-HS2 DNA and RNA kits and consumables will be used to generate next-generation sequencing (NGS) ready libraries from immunotherapy cancer patient's tumor samples to determine tumor somatic mutation burden. Our clinical trial(s) here at the NIH/NCI have been utilizing these kits for the past 4-5 years, so maintaining continuity within the protocol is key. Purchase is being made by the National Cancer Institute, and procurement is being made by Surgery Branch under the direction of Dr. Steven A. Rosenberg, MD/PhD, Branch Chief.

3.0 TYPE OF ORDER

This is a Firm Fixed-Price Purchase Order.

4.0 SPECIAL ORDER REQUIREMENTS

4.1 PRODUCT FEATURES/SALIENT CHARACTERISTICS

The following product features/characteristics are required for this requirement:

- Library prep kit generates either a WES library prep or RNASeq library that is sequencing ready within 8-9hrs compared to originally taking 3-4 days to process.
- These new kits, adapted from the original SureSelect XT HS kits now utilizes 10-200ng of starting material compared to 2ug of gDNA for the original kit.
- Library prep kit has the capacity to be sequenced on our in-house NextSeq 2000 or NovaSeq 6000 sequencers which results in an increased total exome coverage from 150X to 300X per sample (WES) and an increase in total reads from 50 million to 150-200 million per sample (RNASeq).
- These new kits are designed to allow for greater multiplexing of the NGS WES and/or RNASeq libraries using the paired dual indexes. The utility of these new kits allows us to sequence both the WES and RNASeq libraries on the same sequencing flow cell at the same time leading to increased efficiency and saving money.
